

Please do not force this deregulation on a public that does not want a few corporations controlling all our news. You have been approached by a bipartisan group of Senators requesting more time to discuss the impact of this change. What have you got to lose by playing fair?